Domestic dogs, cats, birds and fish are the only pets permitted at The Yacht Club at Portofino, and the rights to maintaining such pets is based on their proper care, supervision and ability to peacefully co-exist with their human neighbors. The keeping of such animals will be restricted by all local applicable laws and regulations. The Board of Directors reserves the right to revoke pet privileges at any time should a resident's pet become a nuisance to residents of other units or of neighboring buildings. In accordance with the Declaration, a maximum of TWO (2), pets may be maintained in a unit, provided that no pet weight is in excess of FIFTY (50) pounds.

- a) No aggressive animals or dogs, including pit bulls or any other breed considered to be dangerous by the Board of Directors, may be kept on the property at any time. Residents must maintain control of their pets at all times while in the common areas or on the Condominium Property.
- b) Dogs and cats shall not be permitted outside of their owner's unit unless attended by an adult and on a leash not more than six (6) feet in length. In no event shall any dog or cat ever be allowed to be walked or taken on or about any of the recreational facilities, including the pool deck.
- c) Fish or caged domestic (household-type) birds may be kept inside the units, subject to the provisions of the Declaration, and with written approval of the Board of Directors. In addition, fish tanks with a capacity greater than fifty (50) gallons will not be permitted unless approved in writing by the Management Office.
- d) Unit owners and occupants shall pick up all waste from their pets and dispose of same appropriately. Failure to comply shall result as the forfeiture of the Pet Deposit as a cleanup fee. A new deposit shall be due immediately.
- e) No diseased animals of any kind shall be kept under any circumstances in a unit or permitted upon the Condominium Property except by prior written consent of the Board of Directors. If such consent is withdrawn by the Board of Directors at any time at a duly called meeting, or the pet has become a nuisance to the Condominium or other unit owners or the rules and regulations regarding pets have not been fully complied with. If consent is withdrawn by the Board of Directors, the unit owner shall, within (2) days remove the pet from the Condominium Property. Consent shall automatically terminate upon death or communicable disease of the pet for which consent was granted.

- f) Any owner maintaining a pet on Condominium Property shall be responsible for, and shall bear expenses of, any and all damages to the property resulting from any pet. Damages shall be assessed by the Board of Directors and collected immediately.
- g) Pets may not be on balconies unless accompanied by a responsible adult and may not be left unaccompanied at any time. Barking animals must be placed inside immediately.
- h) All dogs must be licensed and identification tags worn at all times. Pet owners must present a valid rabies inoculation certificate to the Management Office upon request.
- i) If your dog has an accident inside the building, it is the owner's/occupants responsibility to immediately clean up after your pet.
- j) While dogs are traveling in the elevators, owners should be mindful of other passengers, as people may be allergic or afraid.
- k) Owners should be aware that the Miami Beach Animal Nuisance Law defines "excessive noise" by any animals as "Continuous or incessant for a period of ten minutes or intermittently for one-half hour to the disturbance of any person at any time of the day or night".
- l) Pet Deposits Information:

ADDENDUM TO LEASE AGREEMENT

This Addendum shall serve to modify and/or supplement that certain Lease Agreement dated _____, 20 _____ by and between _____ (hereinafter) "Owner/Lessor(s)" OR Owner(s) of the following described unit:

Unit # _____ of The Yacht Club at Portofino, A condominium, according to the Declaration of Condominium thereof recorded in Official Record Book 18784 at Page 2578 of the Public Records of Miami-Dade County Florida. ("Unit").

And _____ (hereinafter "Lessee(s)" or "Tenant(s)"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the aforementioned Lease agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The Yacht Club at Portofino Condominium Association, Inc., (hereinafter "Association"), and/or its authorized agent shall have an irrevocable right of access to each unit from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for inspection, maintenance, repair or replacement of any Common Element therein or accessible there from, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage(s) to the common elements or another unit or units.
2. The Lessee agrees not to use the Unit or any portion of the common elements in a manner which violates the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium of The Yacht Club at Portofino Condominium or the By-Laws, Articles of Incorporation or Rules and Regulations of the Association or anything which violates any applicable law, code, ordinance, or regulation of any governmental entity having jurisdiction over the property operated by the Association or interferes with the rights of other residents or the Association.
3. The Association shall have the right to collect, and the Lessee shall have the obligation to pay to the Association all rental payments and apply same against unpaid Assessment, (as defined in the Declaration of Condominium), together with interest, costs, late fees, and reasonable attorney's fees, if and to the extent that the Owner(s)/Lessor is delinquent in the payment of assessments. Owner(s) specifically grants the Association the right to notify Lessee(s) of any failure to pay Assessments or other charges so as to exercise the right contained herein and Lessee(s) shall make payment of all rent to the Association otherwise payable to the Owner(s), without deduction, until such delinquency is satisfied in full, or until the Lease is terminated or expires, whichever occurs first. For so long as Lessee(s) have the obligation to pay rent to the Association, they shall not be in default of their obligations to Owners(s) for the failure to pay rent. Owner(s) release the Association from any liability under any Federal or State Laws regulating debt collection or credit reporting in connection with the exercise of the Association's rights pursuant hereto.
4. The following persons are authorized to occupy the Unit along with the afore named Lessee(s):

No person(s) other than those specifically identified herein shall be allowed to occupy the Unit (except as to guests for not more 48 hours), nor may the Lease be assigned, extended or renewed without prior written approval of the Association.

5. Any violation of the terms of this Addendum, including the failure to pay rent pursuant to paragraph (3), shall constitute a basis for the Association to require that all persons otherwise allowed to occupy the Unit vacate such unit upon five (5) days written notice. The Association shall enforce these right through and eviction action or through injunctive relief and it shall be presumed that the violation of any provisions hereof shall constitute irreparable harm and that the Association has no adequate remedy and would be entitled to a temporary injunction to enforce the requirement to vacate the Unit. In any such proceedings, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney's fees and costs.
6. Nothing contained in the Lease, this Addendum, or the Condominium Documents shall in any manner:
  - (i) Be deemed to make the Association a party to the Lease or this Addendum (except to the extent necessary, if at all, to enable the Association to enforce its right hereunder or under the Condominium Documents).
  - (ii) Create any obligation or liability of the Association to Owner/Lessor or Tenant (including without limitation, any obligation as a landlord under applicable law or any liability based on the Association's approval of Tenant pursuant o the Declaration of Condominium, such approval being solely for the benefit of the Association), or
  - (iii) Create any rights or privileges of Tenant under the Lease, this Addendum or the Condominium Documents in or as to the Association.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals, this day _____ of _____, 20_____.

PROCEDURE FOR COLLATERAL ASSIGNMENT OF RENTS

1. When a resident application (to lease a Unit) is presented for processing, the Management Office shall check the current status of the unit owner's account with the Association.
  - A) If the account reflects a past due balance, the application shall not be processed unless the account is immediately brought current
  - (i) Maintenance Fee Payments cannot be accepted by the Management Office, an exception will be made for amount equal to less than one month's maintenance fee, and the only on a one-time basis for purposes of timely lease processing.
    - a) All funds must clear the Association's Bank in order for an account to be considered current. For this reason, owners may prefer to send payments via overnight mail to the lockbox address or to contact CSI Management for Click & Pay instructions.
  - (ii) If a Unit Owner disputes the default, he/she must resolve the matter directly with the Association's Management Company 305-673-4448.
2. All resident applications include a form for Collateral Assignment of Rents. This document must be completed and signed in order for the application to be processed. In the event of a future delinquency on the unit the tenant will be directed to remit rent payments to the Association until the account is satisfied in full.

3. Authority for Collateral Assignment of Rents for The Yacht Club at Portofino Declaration of Condominium Article 13.3:

"... each owner of any Unit by acceptance of a deed therefore or other conveyance thereof, whether or not it shall be so expressed in any such deed or conveyance, shall be deemed to have assigned all rents, issues and profits (the "Collateral Assignment of Rents") on each such Unit to the Association, which Collateral Assignment of Rents shall become absolute upon default of such Unit Owner...

Definition of Default - The Yacht Club at Portofino Declaration of Condominium, Article 13.3

"assessments and installments thereof not paid within 10 days from the date when they are due ...

Resident Applications presented for processing must be fully completed. Addresses and contact information are particularly important, especially for new owners. Applications that are incomplete in any way cannot be accepted for processing and will be returned to the originator for completion.

Children under the age of 15 are not permitted to enter the exercise room whether or not accompanied by an adult.
15. Pets, birds, fish and other animals, reptiles or wildlife shall neither be kept nor maintained in or about the Condominium Property except in accordance with the following, in addition to the applicable terms of the Declaration:
  - a. Dogs and cats shall not be permitted outside of their owner's Unit unless attended by an adult and on a leash not more than six (6) feet long. Said dogs and cats shall only be waked on non-association property. In not event shall said dog or cat ever be allowed to be walked or taken on or about any recreational facilities within the Condominium Property except as necessary to transit from the building to the stairs or elevator.

- b. Fish or cage domestic (household-type) birds may be kept in the Units, subject to the provisions of the Declaration. Unit owners are required to pick up all solid wastes from their pets and dispose of same appropriately. Fines will be imposed if noncompliant.
- 16. Every Owner and occupant shall comply with the full version of the Rules and Regulations, any and all rules which from time to time may be adopted, and the provisions of the Declaration, By - Laws, Articles of Incorporation of the Association, as amended from time to time. Failure of Owner or occupant to comply shall be grounds for action which may include, without limitation, an action to recover sums due for damages, injunctive relief or any combination thereof.
- 17. In addition to all other remedies, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors of the Association, a fine or fines may be imposed upon an Owner for failure of an Owner, his/her family, guests, invitees, lessees or employees, to comply with any covenant, restriction, rule or regulation herein or in the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation or By- Laws, provided the following procedures are adhered to:
- 18. NOTICE: The party against whom the fine is sought to be Levied shall be afforded an opportunity to attend a hearing after reasonable notice of not less than fourteen (14) days and said notices shall include:
  - i. A statement of the date, time and place of the hearing
  - ii. A statement of the provisions of the Declaration, Association By-Laws, or Association Rules which have allegedly been violated and ...
    - a) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted by the Association
    - b) Hearing: The non-compliance shall be presented to a Committee of other Unit Owners, who shall hear reasons why penalties should not be imposed. The party against whom the fine may be levied shall have an opportunity to respond, to present evidence, and to provide written and oral argument on all issues involved and shall have an opportunity at the hearing to review, challenge and respond to any material considered by the committee. A written decision of the committee shall be submitted to the Owner or occupant by no later than twenty-one (21) days after the meeting.
    - c) Fines: The Board of Directors may impose fines against the applicable Unit/Resident up to the maximum amount permitted by law from time to time.
    - d) Violations: Each separate incident which is grounds for a fine shall be the basis of one separate fine. In case of continuing violations, each continuation of same after a notice here of is given shall be deemed a separate incident.
    - e) Payment of Fines: Fines shall be paid no later than (30) days after notice of the imposition therefore. If the fines are not paid within the 30-day window, additional penalties will be imposed and invoked when selling or leasing the unit.
    - f) Application of Fines: All monies received from fines shall be allocated as directed by the Board of Directors.
- 19. NON-EXCLUSIVE REMEDY: These fines shall not be construed to be exclusive and shall exist in addition to all other rights and remedies to which the Association may be otherwise legally entitled; however, any penalty paid by the offending Owner or occupant shall be deducted from or offset against any damages which the Association may otherwise be entitled to recover by law from such Owner or occupant.

20. OCCUPANCY: No leases for occupancy of less than 30 days can be solicited or permitted. Subleasing is not permitted at any time. Home exchanges are considered a lease and must be for a minimum of 30 days. All units are to be used as a residence only; bona-fide home-based businesses must conform to City of Miami Beach Ordinances.
21. KEYS AND EMERGENCY ACCESS: Unit keys may not under any circumstances be left with an Association employee, tenant or agent, for pick up by any individual. Unit keys may not be left in any common area or limited common area. In order to ensure access to a unit in the event of an emergency, thus protecting the welfare of others in the building, the Association shall maintain a key to each unit. No owner or occupant shall change locks or install additional locks unless duplicate keys are provided to the Management Office. If at any time it is found that the management office does not have a current key to a unit, the management reserves the right to have a bonded locksmith make a key for the use of management, with any and all costs to be borne by the owner, without any prior notification by management. Also, if no key is available, the management reserves the right in the event of an emergency, to enter the unit by force if necessary, and shall bear no liability whatsoever for any and all damages incurred.
- a) Unlocking a Unit: In an emergency, a valid and currently registered resident may request Security Staff to unlock his/her unit door. Guests or visitors cannot be granted access by Security to individual units under any circumstance.

22. VALET PARKING RULES:

- a) Owners Who Rent Their Unit: Will not be allowed to use their free parking space, (either assigned or valet space), during the rental period. While the unit is rented, the bar codes assigned to the owner, along with the fob will be deactivated for the length of the lease. It will be the owner's responsibility to notify the Management Office when the lessee vacates the premises at the end of the lease.
- b) Barcodes: will now be affixed to the second owned vehicle. All vehicles including motorcycles and or scooters must be registered with the Management Office. Vehicles parked in the lots without barcodes, or not identified as valet parked will be stickered and will need to pay the full parking fees. If not moved, those vehicles will be towed.
- c) Temporary: barcodes will be issued and activated for rental vehicles. Owners should notify the office prior to their arrival if they will be using a rental vehicle and advise the length of the rental.
- d) Any Unit: which has more than two vehicles, (this includes motorcycles and scooters) must pay a fee of $100/month for each additional vehicle if the owner/resident wished to keep them parked in the garage. Barcodes shall be mandatory for each vehicle. These must be affixed to the vehicle. No floating barcodes will be given out.
