Domestic dogs, cats, birds and fish are the only pets permitted at The Yacht Club at Portofino, and the rights to maintaining such pets is based on their proper care, supervision and ability to peacefully co-exist with their human neighbors. The keeping of such animals will be restricted by all local applicable laws and regulations. The Board of Directors reserves the right to revoke pet privileges at any time should a resident's pet become a nuisance to residents of other units or of neighboring buildings. In accordance with the Declaration, a maximum of TWO (2), pets may be maintained in a unit, provided that no pet weight is in excess of FIFTY (50) pounds.

- a) No aggressive animals or dogs, including pit bulls or any other breed considered to be dangerous by the Board of Directors, may be kept on the property at any time. Residents must maintain control of their pets at all times while in the common areas or on the Condominium Property.
- b) Dogs and cats shall not be permitted outside of their owner's unit unless attended by an adult and on a leash not more than six (6) feet in length. In no event shall any dog or cat ever be allowed to be walked or taken on or about any of the recreational facilities, including the pool deck.
- c) Fish or caged domestic (household-type) birds may be kept inside the units, subject to the provisions of the Declaration, and with written approval of the Board of Directors. In addition, fish tanks with a capacity greater than fifty (50) gallons will not be permitted unless approved in writing by the Management Office.
- d) Unit owners and occupants shall pick up all waste from their pets and dispose of same appropriately. Failure to comply shall result as the forfeiture of the Pet Deposit as a cleanup fee. A new deposit shall be due immediately.
- e) No diseased animals of any kind shall be kept under any circumstances in a unit or permitted upon the Condominium Property except by prior written consent of the Board of Directors. If such consent is withdrawn by the Board of Directors at any time at a duly called meeting, or the pet has become a nuisance to the Condominium or other unit owners or the rules and regulations regarding pets have not been fully complied with. If consent is withdrawn by the Board of Directors, the unit owner shall, within (2) days remove the pet from the Condominium Property. Consent shall automatically terminate upon death or communicable disease of the pet for which consent was granted.

- f) Any owner maintaining a pet on Condominium Property shall be responsible for, and shall bear expenses of, any and all damages to the property resulting from any pet. Damages shall be assessed by the Board of Directors and collected immediately.
- g) Pets may not be on balconies unless accompanied by a responsible adult and may not be left unaccompanied at any time. Barking animals must be placed inside immediately.
- h) All dogs must be licensed and identification tags worn at all times. Pet owners must present a valid rabies inoculation certificate to the Management Office upon request.
- i) If your dog has an accident inside the building, it is the owner's/occupants responsibility to immediately clean up after your pet.
- j) While dogs are traveling in the elevators, owners should be mindful of other passengers, as people may be allergic or afraid.
- k) Owners should be aware that the Miami Beach Animal Nuisance Law defines "excessive noise" by any animals as "Continuous or incessant for a period of ten minutes or intermittently for one-half hour to the disturbance of any person at any time of the day or night".
- l) Pet Deposits Information:

- a) Dogs and cats shall not be permitted outside of their owner's Unit unless attended by an adult and on a leash not more than six (6) feet long. Said dogs and cats shall only be walked on non-association property. In no event shall said dog or cat ever be allowed to be walked or taken on or about any recreational facilities within the Condominium Property except as necessary to transit from the building to the stairs or elevator.
 - b) Fish or cage domestic (household-type) birds may be kept in the Units, subject to the provisions of the Declaration. Unit owners are required to pick up all solid wastes from their pets and dispose of same appropriately. Fines will be imposed if noncompliant.
16. Every Owner and occupant shall comply with the full version of the Rules and Regulations, any and all rules which from time to time may be adopted, and the provisions of the Declaration, By Laws, Articles of Incorporation of the Association, as amended from time to time. Failure of Owner or occupant to comply shall be grounds for action which may include, without limitation, an action to recover sums due for damages, injunctive relief or any combination thereof.
17. In addition to all other remedies, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors of the Association, a fine or fines may be imposed upon an Owner for failure of an Owner, his/her family, guests, invitees, lessees or employees, to comply with any covenant, restriction, rule or regulation herein or in the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation or By- Laws, provided the following procedures are adhered to:
18. NOTICE: The party against whom the fine is sought to be Levied shall be afforded an opportunity to attend a hearing after reasonable notice of not less than fourteen (14) days and said notices shall include:
- i. A statement of the date, time and place of the hearing
 - ii. A statement of the provisions of the Declaration, Association By-Laws, or Association Rules which have allegedly been violated and...
 - a) A short and plain statement of the matters asserted by the Association
 - b) Hearing: The non-compliance shall be presented to a Committee of other Unit Owners, who shall hear reasons why penalties should not be imposed. The party against whom the fine may be levied shall have an opportunity to respond, to present evidence, and to provide written and oral argument on all issues involved and shall have an opportunity at the hearing to review, challenge and respond to any material considered by the committee. A written decision of the committee shall be submitted to the Owner or occupant by no later than twenty-one (21) days after the meeting.
 - c) Fines: The Board of Directors may impose fines against the applicable Unit/Resident up to the maximum amount permitted by law from time to time.
 - d) Violations: Each separate incident which is grounds for a fine shall be the basis of one separate fine. In case of continuing violations, each continuation of same after a notice here of is given shall be deemed a separate incident.

- e) Payment of Fines: Fines shall be paid no later than (30) days after notice of the imposition therefore. If the fines are not paid within the 30 day window, additional penalties will be imposed and invoked when selling or leasing the unit.
- f) Application of Fines: All monies received from fines shall be allocated as directed by the Board of Directors.

19. NON-EXCLUSIVE REMEDY: These fines shall not be construed to be exclusive and shall exist in addition to all other rights and remedies to which the Association may be otherwise legally entitled; however, any penalty paid by the offending Owner or occupant shall be deducted from or offset against any damages which the Association may otherwise be entitled to recover by law from such Owner or occupant.

20. OCCUPANCY: No leases for occupancy of less than 30 days can be solicited or permitted. Subleasing is not permitted at any time. Home exchanges are considered a lease and must be for a minimum of 30 days. All units are to be used as a residence only; bona-fide home-based businesses must conform to City of Miami Beach Ordinances.

21. KEYS AND EMERGENCY ACCESS: Unit keys may not under any circumstances be left with an Association employee, tenant or agent, for pick up by any individual. Unit keys may not be left in any common area or limited common area. In order to ensure access to a unit in the event of an emergency, thus protecting the welfare of others in the building, the Association shall maintain a key to each unit. No owner or occupant shall change locks or install additional locks unless duplicate keys are provided to the Management Office. If at any time it is found that the management office does not have a current key to a unit, the management reserves the right to have a bonded locksmith make a key for the use of management, with any and all costs to be borne by the owner, without any prior notification by management. Also, if no key is available, the management reserves the right in the event of an emergency, to enter the unit by force if necessary, and shall bear no liability whatsoever for any and all damages incurred.

- a) Unlocking a Unit: In an emergency, a valid and currently registered resident may request Security Staff to unlock his/her unit door. Guests or visitors cannot be granted access by Security to individual units under any circumstance.

22. VALET PARKING RULES:

- a) Owners Who Rent Their Unit: Will not be allowed to use their free parking space, (either assigned or valet space), during the rental period. While the unit is rented, the bar codes assigned to the owner, along with the fob will be deactivated for the length of the lease. It will be the owner's responsibility to notify the Management Office when the lessee vacates the premises at the end of the lease.
- b) Barcodes: will now be affixed to the second owned vehicle. All vehicles including motorcycles and or scooters must be registered with the Management Office. Vehicles parked in the lots without barcodes, or not identified as valet parked will be stickered and will need to pay the full parking fees. If not moved, those vehicles will be towed.
- c) Temporary: barcodes will be issued and activated for rental vehicles. Owners should notify the office prior to their arrival if they will be using a rental vehicle and advise the length of the rental.

- d) Floating Barcodes: are no longer permitted. Owners and renters must stick a barcode to their vehicle even if it is a rented vehicle. A reduced rate per barcode for rental vehicles is available.
- e) Please ask the Management Office for more details.
